Reading Comprehension

2) Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

Rodina had always loved the beach. Ever since she was a little girl, the sound of the waves crashing against the shore brought her a sense of peace. Last summer, she decided to take a trip to the coast with her best friend, Mary. They spent their days soaking up the sun, playing volleyball, and collecting seashells along the shore.

One afternoon, they decided to take a walk down a quiet path that led into the forest behind the beach. As they ventured deeper, they came across a small, hidden pond surrounded by tall trees. The water was still and mirrored the clear sky above. They sat for hours, talking and laughing, enjoying the beauty of the place. It was a moment of pure tranquility, a memory neither would ever forget. That trip to the beach not only strengthened their friendship but also deepened Rodina's love for nature. She realized how much peace she found in the quiet moments away from the noise of daily life.
